

HILL TO WITHDRAW

The New York Times Authority for the Statement.

It is Also Reported That Hill Has Written a Letter, Which Now Resides in a New York State.

New York, June 9.—It is rumored that Senator Hill has withdrawn from the contest for the presidential nomination before the Chicago convention.

ANOTHER REPORT.

New York, June 10.—The Times this morning publishes the following special from Troy: There is in existence a letter signed by Senator David B. Hill, authorizing the withdrawal of his name from all further consideration by the Democratic state and national conventions whenever, in the opinion and at the discretion of Richard Croker, Hugh McLaughlin, Edward Murphy, Jr., and W. F. Sheehan, such a step should be taken.

That letter is in this city at this moment in the safe of Edward Murphy, Jr., chairman of the Democratic state committee. There will be a meeting of the committee on the afternoon of tomorrow, but they are based upon the information which the Times has taken pains to verify and which it is believed is absolutely reliable. The letter was brought to New York by Lieutenant-Governor Sheehan on Sunday night from Washington.

Democratic Convention in Alabama. MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 9.—The Democratic convention is in session here. Ex-Governor Thomas Goetz was made permanent chairman. His speech with reference to Hill brought a slight demonstration, but there was a cyclone of enthusiasm when he pronounced the name of Cleveland.

Governor Thomas Jones was renominated unanimously. The voters of the convention named the entire state ticket and elected the full state committee and delegates to the Chicago convention.

Being Tried for Conspiracy.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—The steamer Monowai arrived this afternoon from Australia, with Honolulu advices regarding the trial of the twenty people charged with conspiring to overthrow the government.

The defense presented a demurrer claiming that there was no evidence to sustain the charges. The demurrer was overruled and the testimony taken. The general impression is that the evidence warrants the commitment of the prisoners for trial, not on the charges of treason, but with a fair show of conviction on the charge of conspiracy. The conspirators will probably be expatriated.

Cornell Wins.

ITHACA, N. Y., June 9.—The Cornell Columbia Freshmen, two miles straight away race, postponed from yesterday to today was pulled this afternoon. The start was a splendid one, Cornell was never headed, keeping up its steady work, while Columbia virtually went to pieces near the finish. Cornell was eight lengths ahead crossing the line. Time—10:56; Columbia, time—11:24.

Blaine Denies That He Was Interviewed.

HOTSPRINGS, June 9.—Blaine today repudiated the alleged interview with him in the Post this morning. He says he did not even see the reporter.

The Pacific Coast Defense.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Senator Blackburn today introduced a bill appropriating $1,200,000 for the procurement under contract of fifty gunboats and carriages for defense of the Pacific coast.

Superintendent of the Southern Pacific Married.

ORDER, June 9.—[Special Telegram to The Herald.]—Superintendent S. W. Knapp of the Southern Pacific Railroad was married at the Reed hotel last evening to Mrs. McLain, a wealthy widow of Santa Barbara, Cal.

Water Franchise Granted.

ORDER, June 9.—[Special Telegram to The Herald.]—At a meeting of the city council last night the Weber river water works franchise was passed, but in such a mutilated condition, that attorney Smith's statements were made only for effect. The council adjourned about 12:30.

"MESSIAH TOLD."

A Declaration Filed Against Him Yesterday.

CHICAGO, June 9.—Sydney C. Miller, president of the National Publishing Company filed a declaration today in the circuit court in his $100,000 damage suit against Dr. Cyrus R. Reed of Kansas fame. The suit is brought for alienating the affections of Jennie L. Miller, the plaintiff's wife and additional charges are also made by Thomas Cole, who also seeks damages in a similar action.

Represented by his wife that he would make her the Goddess Minerva and that it was necessary to give up all her possessions, to be converted. By false representations he induced Mrs. Miller to give up a considerable sum of money and for this and the destruction of his name and loss of his wife, Miller demands compensation.

The Cover of Alesia Strike About Over.

WALLACE, Ida., June 9.—The strike in Coeur d'Alene mining district is rapidly nearing an end. The result is favorable to the mine owners.

Five Persons Killed.

LONDON, June 9.—By a collision on the Midland railway five persons were killed and twenty others injured.

A SENSATIONAL SUIT.

A Former Actress Sues a Millionaire for Breach of Promise.

CHICAGO, June 9.—A suit for breach of promise of marriage and $500,000 damages has been instituted in the supreme court by Mrs. Jessie Hall, a former actress whose stage name was Dorathia Lewis, against James W. Paige of Hartford, Conn. Paige manufactured the Palace type setting machine. Mrs. Hall's attorney says Paige is a several times millionaire and made the acquaintance of Mrs. Hall in Hartford. Under promise of marriage he induced her to quit the stage and go and live with him two years ago. He finally brought her to the city for marriage at Milwaukee, April last. Arriving there he declined to marry her and forced her to sign a paper releasing him. It transpires that an action was begun in the police court a few days ago by Stephen Rogers of Hartford, Conn., against Mrs. Hall and E. N. Grant, charging them with passing as man and wife, though they are not married.

CONGRESS.

The Senate Passes the Urgent Deficiency Bill.

The House Passes the Bill Relating to Penitentiaries, in Which an Applicant Does Not Have to Prove Loyalty.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—The urgent deficiency pension bill passed.

The House bill for the admission of New Mexico and Arizona as states was referred to the committee on territories. The agricultural and legislative appropriation bill was referred to the committee on appropriations. Adjourned till Monday.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Immediately after reading the Journal of Alabama called up the bill modifying the revised statutes so as to dispense with proof of loyalty during the war of the rebellion as a prerequisite to being restored or admitted to the pension roll of any person who otherwise would be entitled thereto, nor shall proof of loyalty be necessary in any application for bounty land where proof of loyalty shows the applicant entitled thereto, providing no soldier restored or admitted to the pension roll shall receive back pay. This act shall not extend to any person under disability imposed by the fourteenth article of the constitutional amendment. Passed.

After acting upon several matters of minor importance, The House adjourned.

Don't Want Blaine.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 9.—The H. P. W. era Republican club met this morning and sent H. H. Powers, chairman of the Vermont delegation at Minneapolis, a telegram saying: "The people and press of Vermont regret your position. Take a positive stand for Harrison. Hatred McKinley and Sherman; not Blaine."

HE SQUINTED ON THE SPIRITS

Novel Method of Discovering the Genuine-ness of a Spirit Medium.

[Special to The Herald.—Examiner Dispatch.] HENLEY, June 9.—Dr. Moll, a well known medical man of this city, attended a seance given by Dr. Pinker, who is one of the leading mediums of Germany, and adopted a novel method of testing the genuineness of the spirit manifestations. He had concealed on his person a syringe filled with a chemical solution, and when the spirit forms appeared he squirted caustic liquid in showers upon the shadowy forms. Instantly there were shrieks of dismay, the spirits scattered with undignified haste and the seance came to an abrupt close. The skeptical doctor had proved to his own satisfaction and that of some friends who were with him that the proceedings of Dr. Pinker were fraudulent, and as a result of the exposure Dr. Pinker was arrested.

Publishing Mortgages.

To the Editor of The Herald: Will you kindly allow us space to reply to a correspondent whose sensitive soul has been shocked by the publication of mortgages in the Daily Court and Real Estate Record? Your correspondent has evidently never heard that similar papers are published in every city of any importance.

He has probably not even heard of Bradstreet's and Dunn's reports which take cognizance of a man's entire indebtedness and concern themselves even with his "waterworks" and "tailors' bills" in order to arrive at a complete knowledge of his commercial standing.

Our critic ought with equal justice call it an "outrage on the citizens" that the public is allowed access to the books and records of the county recorder's office. He is probably not aware that this office is established for the special purpose of affording the public an opportunity of knowing what encumbrances are upon property and in whom the titles really rest. The Court and Real Estate Record merely reprints such information more accessible. It is not published to gratify the morbid curiosity of the general public, but to furnish information to those interested in property, regardless of the "annoysance" of "mortgages." If it is ashamed to have the assessor or the general public know of his transactions he must keep out of the public courts and public records.

The fact that nearly every real estate dealer, lawyer, abstract company, loan society, building, insurance company and commercial agency in the city takes the Record and appreciates the information it furnishes proves that it is not useless. We have been thus full in our statements for the benefit of your correspondent who has not even shown learning to make him dangerous.

A NEW INVENTION.

An Electrical Apparatus that Will Be of Benefit to the Railway World.

D. D. Tate of Denver, formerly electrician of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad, has invented an electrical apparatus which will be of great benefit to the railroad world.

He has made an improvement on the block signal system which is far in advance of anything else heretofore patented, and by its use on railroads will prevent nine-tenths of the collisions and make a reduction in the operating expense by removing train dispatchers, a large number of telegraph operators and flagmen.

A road to be equipped with this system is necessarily divided into so called blocks (short divisions) from station to station, will generally constitute a block. Each block will have its own "signal" or "light" electrically, on the semaphore order and illuminated at night. Two of these signals "home signals" are to be placed at the two ends of the block. The "home signals" "signal signals" are to be placed in the block at a distance from the "home signals" as occasion may demand. This gives each end of every block a home signal, the "signal" with apparatus for operating them, the "signal operator" located midway of the block. Any desired number of blocks will be laid out in a division and at terminals of which a telegraph operator will be placed for commercial work, etc.

A train advancing from one station to another, will in passing over a certain part of track cross the "home signal" that place to denote a clear block but returns to danger the moment the train passes or runs over the second part of the track, which will be the "signal operator" which causes the two distant signals in the block (one at either end) to denote a clear block and look at danger to the train coming from each end of block which cannot be cleared until the train passes over a third part of the track, which is at opposite end of block, and so on.

The apparatus operates exactly the same when trains pass over the road in either direction.

A single track street car line with the above equipment prevents one car waiting for a side track for an opposite running car that has been delayed.

The "signal operator" is of such design as to be applicable for signals where railroad track crosses a street or a street crossing a railroad track.

Mr. Tate has arranged to equip an electric road in Denver, and has come to Salt Lake with the intention of securing here, after which he proposes to incorporate a stock company of $50,000 capital stock.

THE AFFIDAVIT.

COUNTY OF BEAR LAKE, STATE OF IDAHO.

Hyrum Grinnell, first being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is a resident of the county of Bear Lake, and state of Idaho; that on the 22nd day of February, 1892, he was present at the auditor's office, in the courthouse at Paris, and there heard a conversation between Walter Hoge, editor of the Independent, and a member of the Republican county central committee, of Bear Lake, and two other Republicans.

That at the time of said conversation said Walter Hoge had a roll, and was soliciting signatures for the Republican party; that one of the said gentlemen asked as to the politics of one H. Duffin, of Paris, to which Walter Hoge replied as follows: "He must be a Republican; put his name down anyway; it will be all right." Whereupon the name went down on the roll, and the said Hoge then turned to the Republican meeting that night by Dr. A. Hoover.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 30th day of May, 1892.

[SEAL] S. M. RICH, Notary Public.

STATE OF IDAHO, COUNTY OF BEAR LAKE.

Orson Pendrey of the town of Paris, county of Bear Lake, and state of Idaho, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is personally acquainted with Walter Hoge of the same place, and that Walter Hoge is the editor of the Southern Idaho Independent, and a member of the Republican Central committee of Bear Lake county.

The affidavit further alleges that on or about the 3rd day of February, 1892, the said Walter Hoge published in his said paper, the Independent, an article in which he charged that upon the Republican roll without his consent or permission, and against his express wish, the name of one H. Duffin, was put down.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 3rd day of June, 1892.

HART AND HOGE.

The Latter Shown Up by the Former.

"No Man Should Use His Religion as a Cloak to Cover up a Bad Record."

To the Editor of THE HERALD: My letter published in THE HERALD some time ago has caused considerable commotion in this immediate vicinity.

The Independent man is terribly exercised, and has poured out all the abusive epithets he could think of in order to tarnish my name and reputation and lower me in the estimation of the people; but his vulgar blackguardism and accusations, as the saying is, "will go home to roost."

He has published several columns of invectives and abuse, but has not disproved one of my statements. He makes up in falsehood and abuse that which he lacks in argument and common sense. I would as soon think of following the ravings of a mad dog as to follow him in his vapors and fulminations, and, besides, he is too low, vulgar and contemptible for any man to waste much time in commenting upon. There was a time when the people had some degree of respect for him, but alas! there are few now "so poor as to do him reverence."

In his second attack my professional reputation is viciously and wilfully assailed.

We have heard more or less of the "sin plate larc" but what shall be said of this model Republican? I would not like to call him a monumental liar, although his last paper would convict him of criminal libel in the charge of a most outrageous jurisdiction. What is worse than a character assassin?

"He who steals my purse steals trash, but he who robs me of my good name," etc. You know the rest.

Now, Mr. Editor, I can't believe in the same politics Mr. Hoge professes to believe in at the present time. It is not so long since he was a Democrat; at least he made this declaration, and assuming that he told the truth, he was admitted into the Democratic convention.

This can be proved by his own statements and by many well known, and he must not attempt to cram his disgusting methods and politics down my throat nor that of my friends.

He accuses the writer of assuming the role of an "accuser of the brethren." I plead guilty now; and shall do so before the throne of God, where I expect to obtain mercy and a full justification "accusing" just such "brethren" as Walter Hoge.

I will tell him further that I fully expect to work out my salvation as a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, in opposing just such men as he, and in doing so he must not charge me with opposing the "priesthood." No man should use religion as a cloak to cover up his bad record in politics or anything else, or in justifying a friend brother or partner in such a course. It may be a religious man here, but it won't hereafter, and don't you forget that, Mr. Hoge. It is detestable in a man, whether it be the editor of the Independent or any of his intimate friends, to seek refuge behind the priest hood.

President Woodruff, the apostles nor President Hodge would not be well pleased to have every respectable political wire-puller throw the "priesthood" of this world upon them. It isn't manly to do so. It's mean and cowardly. Go down into your better nature, Mr. Hoge, if you have such a thing, and tell me honestly if you don't believe I'm right. I am accused of being absent-minded. To Hoge a sufficient evidence of this is to say one word or make one statement and he is ready to charge me with libel or slander or anything else he can think of to cross him in any of his little games, and constantly he is becoming his enemy. I speak from experience, and know that Hoge today would crush me to the earth if he had the power. This may be seen by his libelous attack upon me, refer me to above.

I am perfectly willing for the people of this county to judge between us.

I send herewith for publication the affidavits of two reputable citizens of Paris, duly sworn to, that the statement made in my letter to THE HERALD is true, viz: That one of the members of the Republican county central committee of this county, who placed the names of citizens upon their roll without their knowledge or permission and against the express wish of the party.

I run which the said Hoge and other statements made that it will be forthcoming at the proper time. The plot thickens, the web is being woven, but rest your little souls in peace, Walter, and fan your excited "brethren" that they may not become unnecessarily "hot." Suffer not yourselves to be controlled, as in the past, by that demon "passion," but rather enlist your wits and common sense. If you pose as a savior try and be consistent with your profession.

"Don't bear false witness against your neighbor." Do as near as possible what you pretend to be. If your ancestors were English, don't boast of the Scotch blood flowing in your veins. Don't be ashamed to spell your own name correctly. Don't assume the high pedestal of a defender of the "brethren" until your feelings are modified and you can act a little more like a "brother."

Now, Mr. Editor, I hope to be excused for taking up so much of your valuable space in discussing Mr. Hoge's political methods, but as he seems to be a political leader (in his mind) of the people of this county and a standard of their political conscience, it is my right to criticize, and when he tells the people that "black is white," that the tariff is not a tax and that socialism is a good thing, he is a dangerous man; that Republican legislation with its monopolies, combinations and trusts, centralization, force bills, McKinley bills and kindred measures are the interest of the mass of the people, we positively demur, and on general principles decline to take any stock in his dragging methods, his crafty politics, or in his disgusting building.
